Opening Hymn [474]

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, in light inaccessible hid from our eyes, most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light, nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might;
thy justice like mountains high soaring above thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all life thou givest, to both great and small;
in all life thou livest, the true life of all;
we blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, and wither and perish, but naught changeth thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light; thine angels adore thee, all veiling their sight;
all laud we would render: O help us to see
'tis only the splendour of light hideth thee.

HYMN [185]

Like the murmur of the dove's song, like the challenge of her flight, like the vigour of the wind's rush, like the new flame's eager might:
come, Holy Spirit, come.

To the members of Christ's Body, to the branches of the vine, to the church in faith assembled, to her midst as gift and sign:
Come, Holy Spirit, come.

With the healing of division, with the ceaseless voice of prayer, with the power to love and witness, with the peace beyond compare:
Come, Holy Spirit, come.

Worship Songs

Faithful one, so unchanging Ageless one, you're my rock of peace Lord of all I depend on you
I call out to you, again and again
I call out to you, again and again

You are my rock in times of trouble
You lift me up when I fall down
All through the storm
Your love is, the anchor
My hope is in You alone

Song 2

Beauty for brokenness
Hope for despair
Lord, in the suffering
This is our prayer
Bread for the children
Justice, joy, peace
Sunrise to sunset
Your kingdom increase!

Shelter for fragile lives
Cures for their ills
Work for the craftsman Trade for their skills
Land for the dispossessed Rights for the weak Voices to plead the cause
Of those who can't speak

*God of the poor, friend of the weak
Give us compassion we pray
Melt our cold hearts, let tears fall like rain
Come, change our love from a spark to a flame*

Refuge from cruel wars
Havens from fear
Cities for sanctuary Freedoms to share
Peace to the killing-fields Scorched earth to green Christ for the bitterness His cross for the pain. Refrain

Rest for the ravaged earth Oceans and streams
Plundered and poisoned
Our future, our dreams
Lord, end our madness
Carelessness, greed Make us content with The things that we need

*God of the poor, friend of the weak
Give us compassion we pray
Melt our cold hearts, let tears fall like rain
Come, change our love from a spark to a flame*

Lighten our darkness
Breathe on this flame
Until your justice
Burns brightly again
Until the nations
Learn of your ways
Seek your salvation
And bring you their praise. Refrain

Offertory Hymn [54]

I cannot tell why he, whom angels worship, should set his love upon the sons of men, or why, as Shepherd, he should seek the wanderers, to bring them back, they know not how or when.
But this I know, that he was born of Mary, when Bethl'hem's manger was his only home, and that he lived at Nazareth and laboured, and so the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is come.

I cannot tell how silently he suffered, as with his peace he graced this place of tears, or how his heart upon the cross was broken, the crown of pain to the three and thirty years.
But this I know, he heals the broken-hearted and stays our sin and calms our lurking fear and lifts the burden from the heavy laden; for still the Saviour, Saviour of the world is here.

I cannot tell how he will win the nations, how he will claim his earthly heritage, how satisfy the needs and aspirations of east and west, of sinner and of sage.
But this I know, all flesh shall see his glory, and he shall reap the harvest he has sown, and some glad day his sun will shine in splendour when he the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is known.

I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship, when, at his bidding, every storm is stilled, or who can say how great the jubilation when every heart with love and joy``` is filled.
But this I know, the skies will thrill with rapture, and myriad, myriad human voices sing, and earth to heav'n, and heav'n to earth, will answer:
at last the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is King.

Please stay for coffee and a chat after the service !

There will be a baptism at 12 noon, led by Revd Phil Edell, after coffee, to which everyone is welcome.

It is with sadness that we tell you that Revd Hugh Hulbert died peacefully during the night on Monday through Tuesday this week. A few hours earlier, he had concelebrated Holy Communion and he gave the blessing. His family and friends are in our prayers. Details of the funeral will be given when known.

Wednesday Coffee mornings

Many thanks to all who come along to support the Wednesday coffee mornings. On the 5th July £36.10 was raised for the Christ Church churchwardens' discretionary Fund.

“ Ralph & Janet Waters would like to thank all friends for their kindness and thoughtfulness in the planning of the service held on 25th June, the lovely buffet lunch and the generous gifts. We did appreciate the care and preparation that went into the occasion, and will remember the day with great pleasure.” Ralph & Janet
