Opening Hymn [557]

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise;
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways!

O loving wisdom of our God!
When all was sin and shame, a second Adam to the fight and to the rescue came.

O wisest love! that flesh and blood, which did in Adam fail, should strive afresh against the foe, should strive, and should prevail;

And that a higher gift than grace should flesh and blood refine: God's presence and his very self,
and essence all-divine.

O generous love! that he who smote in Man for man the foe, the double agony in Man for man should undergo.

And in the garden secretly, and on the cross on high,
should teach his brethren, and inspire to suffer and to die.

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise;
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways!

Worship Songs

I will offer up my life
in spirit and truth,
pouring out the oil of love
as my worship to you.
In surrender I must give my every part;
Lord, receive the sacrifice of a broken heart.

*Jesus, what can I give, what can I bring
to so faithful a friend, to so loving a King?
Saviour, what can be said,
what can be sung
as a praise of your name for the things you have done?
O my words could not tell,
not even in part,
of the debt of love that is owed by this thankful heart.*

You deserve my every breath for you've paid the great cost;
giving up your life to death,
even death on a cross.
You took all my shame away,
there defeated my sin,
opened up the gates of heav'n, and have beckoned me in. Refrain

Song 2

Faithful one, so unchanging Ageless one, you're my rock of peace Lord of all I depend on you
I call out to you, again and again
I call out to you, again and again

You are my rock in times of trouble You lift me up when I fall down All through the storm
Your love is, the anchor My hope is in You alone

Offertory Hymn [172]

The head that once was crowned with thorns is crowned with glory now; a royal diadem adorns the mighty Victor's brow.

The highest place that heaven affords is his, is his by right, the King of kings and Lord of lords, and heaven's eternal Light;

The joy of all who dwell above, the joy of all below
to whom he manifests his love and grants his name to know.

To them the cross, with all its shame, with all its grace, is given;
their name an everlasting name, their joy the joy of heaven.

They suffer with their Lord below, they reign with him above, their profit and their joy to know the mystery of his love.

The cross he bore is life and health, though shame and death to him:
his people's hope, his people's wealth, their everlasting theme.

Final Hymn [262]

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand hath made, I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed;

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee,
how great thou art! how great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee,
how great thou art! how great thou art!*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees; when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur, and hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze; Refrain

And when I think that God his Son not sparing, sent him to die - I scarce can take it in,
that on the cross my burden gladly bearing, he bled and died to take away my sin: Refrain

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home- what joy shall fill my heart!
then I shall bow in humble adoration and there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee,
how great thou art! how great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee,
how great thou art! how great thou art!*
