Opening Hymn [2]

Christ, whose glory fills the skies,
Christ, the true, the only light,
Sun of Righteousness, arise,
triumph o'er the shades of night;
Dayspring from on high, be near;
Daystar, in my heart appear.

Dark and cheerless is the morn
unaccompanied by thee;
joyless is the day's return,
till thy mercy's beams I see;
till they inward light impart,
glad my eyes and warm my heart.

Visit then this soul of mine;
pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
fill me, radiancy divine,
scatter all my unbelief;
more and more thyself display,
shining to the perfect day.

HYMN [253]

For the beauty of the earth,
for the glory of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies;
*Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

For the beauty of each hour
of the day and of the night,
hill and vale, and tree and flower,
sun and moon, and stars of light;
*Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

For the joy of human love,
brother, sister, parent, child,
friends on earth and friends above,
pleasures pure and undefiled.
*Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

For each perfect gift of thine,
To our race so freely given,
Graces human and divine,
Flowers of earth and buds of heaven:
*Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

For thy church which evermore
lifteth holy hands above,
offering up on every shore
her pure sacrifice of love;
*Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

Worship Songs

As the deer pants for the water,
so my soul longs after you.
You alone are my heart's desire
and I long to worship you.

*You alone are my strength, my shield,
to you alone may my spirit yield.
You alone are my heart's desire
and I long to worship you.*

I want you more than gold or silver,
only you can satisfy.
You alone are the real joy-giver
and the apple of my eye. Refrain

You're my friend and you are my brother,
even though you are a King.
I love you more than any other,
so much more than anything.

*You alone are my strength, my shield,
to you alone may my spirit yield.
You alone are my heart's desire
and I long to worship you.*

Song 2

All heav'n declares
the glory of the risen Lord.
Who can compare
with the beauty of the Lord?
For ever he will be
the Lamb upon the throne.
I gladly bow the knee
and worship him alone.

I will proclaim
the glory of the risen Lord.
Who once was slain
to reconcile us to God.
For ever you will be
the Lamb upon the throne.
I gladly bow the knee
and worship you alone.

Offertory Hymn [208] Part 2, 3 & Doxology

Christ is made the sure foundation,
Christ the head and cornerstone,
chosen of the Lord, and precious,
binding all the Church in one,
holy Sion's help for ever,
and her confidence alone.

All that dedicated city,
dearly loved of God on high,
in exultant jubilation
pours perpetual melody,
God the One in Three adoring
in glad hymns eternally.

To this temple, where we call thee,
come, O Lord of Hosts, today;
with thy wonted loving-kindness
hear thy servants as they pray;
and thy fullest benediction shed within its walls always.

Here vouchsafe to all thy servants
what they ask of thee to gain,
what they gain from thee for ever
with the blessed to retain,
and hereafter in thy glory
evermore with thee to reign.

Laud and honour to the Father,
laud and honour to the Son,
laud and honour to the Spirit,
ever Three, and ever One,
consubstantial, co-eternal,
while unending ages run.

Please stay for coffee and a chat after the service

Remember
in Prayer

All those who are sick,
grieving, troubled or lonely.

Mary Clarke would like to thank the Church Family for their prayers, cards and kind enquiries, all of which she has much appreciated. Hopefully, Mary will be returning home tomorrow.

Wednesday Coffee mornings

Many thanks to all come along to support the Wednesday coffee mornings.

On the 4th October £29.80 was raised for FSW

IMPORTANT!

Central Worthing Review:

As you may be aware, the Bishop of Chichester has commissioned a review of all the central Worthing churches, all of whom are in vacancy. The PCC have had a chance to study and discuss the recommendations, and have responded to the Bishop. The part of the review that affects Christ Church, along with the response sent to Archdeacon Douglas McKittrick, who will now take this forward, has been handed to you with this pews sheet. The PCC are keen to keep you informed of what is happening.

If you have any questions, please talk to a member of the PCC:

Ken Hobbs, Simon Davies, John Bull, Janine Hobbs, Dorothy Foan, Helene Vine, Miles Young, Jenny Chandler, Lorraine Roberts and Ralph Waters.

Tuesday, 31st October 2017

We welcome back Michael Donin (ex-Mayor) and his partner, Linda Williams, who will relate more of their experiences during their working lives and during their time in Office.

Monday 6th November at 7pm

“The Last Fisherman Standing” will be screening the Cornish "Last Fisherman" feature film, created by “We Are Ronin”, a group of award winning documentary makers.

This poetic film, recently featured on Countryfile, shares insights into a livelihood that is all but clinging on to today's world, in Worthing and elsewhere along the British coast.

The screening will take place in Worthing's fishermen's church, Christ Church, in Grafton Road. The South Gallery of the church was traditionally known as the ‘Fishermen’s gallery’.

The film will be followed with a Q&A session with the producer and director of the film.”

The Last Fisherman Standing is run by a team at “We Are FoodPioneers CIC”, a local social enterprise based in Worthing. They managed to secure Heritage Lottery funding for this project in the summer of 2016 and are now pushing forward to explore the local fishing heritage along the South Coast, with a particular focus on Worthing. The last full-time fishermen stopped working on Worthing’s beach in 2015, and their heritage along with their small-scale fishing techniques and their traditions are disappearing fast. There has never been more urgency to preserve the fishing heritage in Worthing, and to record and share the memories and experiences of the town's long-time fishing families. Visit their website and come along and watch their film on 6th November in Christ Church.
