Opening Hymn [621]

Who would true valour see
let them come hither:
one here will constant be
come wind, come weather.
there's no discouragement
shall make him once relent
his first avowed intent
to be a pilgrim.

Whoso beset him round
with dismal stories
do but themselves confound:
his strength the more is.
No lion can him fright
he'll with a giant fight,
but he will have the right
to be a pilgrim.

Hobgoblin nor foul fiend
can daunt his spirit:
he knows he at the end
shall life inherit.
Then, fancies, fly away;
he'll not fear what men say;
he'll labour night and day
to be a pilgrim.

Worship Songs

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want;
he makes me lie in pastures green,
he leads me by the still, still waters,
his goodness restores my soul.

*And I will trust in you alone,
and I will trust in you alone,
for your endless mercy follows me,
your goodness will lead me home.*

He guides my ways in righteousness,
and he anoints my head with oil;
and my cup - it overflows with joy,
I feast on his pure delights.

And though I walk the darkest path -
I will not fear the evil one,
for you are with me, and your rod and staff
are the comfort I need to know.

Song 2

*Broken for me, broken for you,
the body of Jesus, broken for you.*
He offered his body, he poured out his soul;
Jesus was broken, that we might be whole.
Come to my table and with me dine;
eat of my bread and drink of my wine.
This is my body given for you;
eat it remembering I died for you.
This is my blood I shed for you,
for your forgiveness, making you new

Offertory Hymn [442]

God is love, let heav'n adore him;
God is love, let earth rejoice;
let creation sing before him,
and exalt him with one voice.
He who laid the earth's foundation,
he who spread the heav'ns above,
he who breathes through all creation,
he is love, eternal love.

God is love and he enfoldeth
all the world in one embrace;
with unfailing grasp he holdeth
every child of every race.
And when human hearts are breaking
under sorrow's iron rod,
then they find that selfsame aching
deep within the heart of God.

God is Love, and though with blindness
sin afflicts the souls of men,
God's eternal loving-kindness
holds and guides us when we fall.
Sin and death and hell shall never
o'er us final triumph gain;
God is Love, so Love for ever o'er the universe must reign.

Final Hymn [496]

Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us
o'er the world's tempestuous sea;
guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us
for we have no help but thee;
yet possessing every blessing
if our God our Father be.

Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us:
all our weakness thou dost know;
thou didst tread this earth before us,
thou didst feel its keenest woe:
lone and dreary, faint and weary,
through the desert thou didst go.

Spirit of our God, descending,
fill our hearts with heavenly joy;
love with every passion blending,
pleasure that can never cloy:
thus provided, pardoned, guided,
nothing can our peace destroy.

Please stay for coffee and a chat after the service!

All those we know who are lonely, troubled, grieving or sick; our neighbouring church St Andrew's, in vacancy; and church family members and residents in local nursing & care homes whom Muriel and the pastoral team visit.

Mary C wishes to thank everyone in the Church Family who have kindly let her know at this time of their prayers and best wishes for her recovery; it has been much appreciated

John Collins, our resident organist has many friends in Brazil. They have asked us to pray for their country at this time, as on Sunday October 28th millions of Brazilians will be voting in the election to choose their next president. This election has been particularly acrimonious as the two candidates (Jair Bolsonaro and Fernando Haddad) are at opposite ends of the political spectrum. Could we please pray that the voters will be guided by prayer as to whom God considers the best candidate to save the country from the spiralling corruption and violence and that peace will prevail during the day and in the days ahead after the winner is announced.

Open Church

Many thanks to all who come along to support our 'Open Church' days throughout the week, and especially to our fundraising Mission coffee mornings each Wednesday, when we welcome donations for the many missions we support.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY!

23rd October 12.30pm to 1.30pm

Jill Lancaster will speak about Carers and the support available to them and those they care for.

27th October, 10.30am to 12 noon.

27th October, 1.30pm to 3pm

Goodbye to British Summertime Part 2. This will be a concert for the church family given by members of the church family; to include cake and a drink at the end of the entertainment.

10th November, 10.30am to 12 noon

CHRISTMAS MINI MARKET. Seasonal edible goodies, Christmas cards, Crafts and Gifts and lots more !

Message from Dorothy – We would appreciate offers of home-made cakes, mince pies, chutneys, preserves and any other Christmas edibles. Please let Joan or Gwen know if you are able to provide any of these. There will be a sign-up sheet nearer the time for helpers. The church will be open for setting-up stalls on Friday, 9th November from 10-12 noon.

13th November, 12.30 to 1.30pm

Richard Bowen will give a Guitar Recital. Entry is free, donations on exit welcomed for Christ Church re-ordering.

Keeping in touch!

Christ Church operates a taxi service for those who find it difficult to get to church on a Sunday, or through the week. If you would like to use the service, please talk with Joan, Sylvia or Lorraine. They can then give you the phone number and the password to book a cab. You do not then have to pay the driver. This is not dependent in any way on ability to pay, this is to help people get to church, without worrying if they have change, or need to call at the last minute etc. If people feel they would like to contribute towards the cost of the fares, they merely place their donation in a Gift Aid envelope, marked 'Taxi'.

If anyone feels that they would like to lead Intercessions occasionally at morning or evening services, please see Janine

RALPH WATERS

Thanks to Alan Cross, friend of Christ Church, an award winning DVD has been produced celebrating 52 years+ of Ralph Waters as Organist at Christ Church. It is a wonderful momento of such outstanding service and dedication to the church, its music and its family.

The DVDs are available from the coffee station, price £5.

All proceeds go to church funds.

Be sure to secure your copy before they all go!

Also, this week, Terrence Charlston gave an organ recital in our church at 7pm. He kindly left CDs of his music for the church family. Anyone who would like a copy should ask Janine or John Bull for a copy. They are free, but if you would like to give a donation, it would be very welcome.
