Opening Hymn [413]

Eternal Father, strong to save,
whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
its own appointed limits keep:
O hear us when we cry to thee
for those in peril on the sea.

O Christ, whose voice the waters heard and hushed their raging at thy word, who walkedst on the foaming deep
and calm amid the storm didst sleep:
O hear us when we cry to thee
for those in peril on the sea.

O Holy Spirit who didst brood
upon the waters dark and rude,
and bid their angry tumult cease
and give for wild confusion, peace:
O hear us when we cry to thee
for those in peril on the sea.

O Trinity of love and power,
our brethren shield in danger's hour;
from rock and tempest, fire and foe
protect them wheresoe'er they go:
thus evermore shall rise to thee
glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

HYMN [467]

How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
in a believer's ear!
It soothes our sorrows, heals his wounds,
and drives away his fear.

It makes the wounded spirit whole
and calms the troubled breast;
'tis manna to the hungry soul,
and to the weary rest.

Dear name, the rock on which I build,
my shield and hiding-place,
my never-failing treasury filled with boundless stores of grace.

Jesus, my Shepherd, Brother, Friend,
my Prophet, Priest, and King,
my Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
accept the praise I bring.

Weak is the effort of my heart,
and cold my warmest thought;
but when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.

Till then I would thy love proclaim
with every fleeting breath;
and may the music of thy name
refresh my soul in death.

Worship Songs

In Christ alone my hope is found,
he is my light, my strength, my song;
this cornerstone, this solid ground,
firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
when fears are stilled, when strivings cease!
My comforter, my all in all,
here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone! - who took on flesh,
fullness of God in helpless babe!
This gift of love and righteousness,
scorned by the ones he came to save:
till on the cross as Jesus died,
the wrath of God was satisfied
for ev'ry sin on him was laid:
here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground his body lay,
Light of the world by darkness slain:
then bursting forth in glorious day
up from the grave he rose again!
And as he stands in victory
sin's curse has lost its grip on me,
for I am his and he is mine –
bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life, no fear in death,
this is the pow'r of Christ in me;
from life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No pow'r of hell, no scheme of man,
can ever pluck me from his hand;
till he returns or calls me home,
here in the pow'r of Christ I'll stand.

Song 2

Such love, pure as the whitest snow;
such love weeps for the shame I know;
such love, paying the debt I owe;
O Jesus, such love.

Such love, stilling my restlessness;
such love, filling my emptiness;
such love, showing me holiness;
O Jesus, such love.

Such love springs from eternity;
such love, streaming through history;
such love, fountain of life to me;
O Jesus, such love.

Offertory Hymn [233]

Jesus calls us; o'er the tumult
Of our life's wild, restless sea,
day by day his sweet voice soundeth,
saying, "Christian, follow me."

As of old Saint Andrew heard it
by the Galilean lake,
turned from home and toil and kindred.
leaving all for his dear sake.

Jesus calls us from the worship
of the vain world's golden store,
from each idol that would keep us,
saying, "Christian, love me more."

In our joys and in our sorrows,
days of toil and hours of ease,
still he calls, in cares and pleasures,
that we love him more than these.

Jesus calls us; by thy mercies,
Saviour, make us hear thy call,
give our hearts to thine obedience,
serve and love thee best of all.

Please stay for coffee and a chat after the service!

All those whom we know that are sick, lonely or troubled; those who have recently been bereaved and church family members and residents in local nursing & care homes whom Muriel and the pastoral team visit.

St Andrew's Clifton Road.. Our friends at St Andrew's have kindly invited us all to their Dedication Festival Mass on Saturday 27th July at 11.30 am followed by refreshments in the hall. They have said "It would be great to see you, if you are free. If you could give us rough numbers, that would be kind." Please therefore let Janine know if you intend to be there, by Sunday 21st, so she can let them know.

"This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us."

Keeping in touch!

Christ Church operates a taxi service for those who find it difficult to get to church on a Sunday or throughout the week. If you would like to use the service, please talk with Joan, Sylvia or Lorraine.

You do not then have to pay the driver. This is not dependent in any way on ability to pay; this is to help people get to church without worrying. If people feel they would like to contribute towards the cost of the fares, they merely place their donation in a Gift Aid envelope, marked 'Taxi'.

Men's Group Update

Following the very positive response to the idea of setting up a Men's Fellowship I can confirm that action is in hand to confirm a speaker for the inaugural meeting. Although we are a little too late to set this first meeting up before the Summer holidays we plan to get together in the not too distant future. The intention is for the first meeting to be held in the Church on a Saturday morning and once speakers (and venue availability) is confirmed we will order the rolls and bacon! Thank you for your patience.

Men

Parish Magazine

Please continue to send us items to include – these can be recipes [family recipes, not those taken directly from any published book], clean, funny jokes, items of interest about people or places and poetry, or indeed, anything you think people will enjoy reading.

Many thanks! Janine and Ann P

Open Church

Many thanks to all who come along to support our 'Open Church' days throughout the week, and especially to our fundraising Mission coffee mornings each Wednesday, when we welcome donations for the many missions we support.

Message from Dorothy

The September Fair is not too far away in the future so could I appeal to you to start looking for suitable sale items – paperbacks, gifts and toiletries and also Raffle prizes. We hope to feature a Bottle Bonanza again [wrapped or in gift bags if possible]. These can contain anything from bottles of sauce, shampoo, washing up liquid, wine, whisky, to quote a few examples! Please ensure they are to the value of at least £1 minimum and full! You can bring them along any time from now and hand them to Di. We will, of course, have our wonderful cake stall – no contributions for that just yet! There will shortly be a sign-up sheet for helpers which will be at the back of the church.

Many thanks.

TURNING TIDES

[Formerly Worthing Churches Homeless Projects]

There has been much in the news media about help for the homeless in society that don't have the comforts that we enjoy and maybe we take a bit for granted. Homeless people feel excluded from society, are often depressed, frightened, in danger at night, and hungry and thirsty.

TURNING TIDES can change all that, but they need help from us in just small ways.

There is a basket and a new list of practical donations that they badly need at present, at the back of the church:
The full list can be found at the back of the church.

For more information, please ask Judie J.
Thank you!!
