Evelyn Harrison is a local musician, who studied clarinet at The Guildhall School of Music and Drama, and on leaving college performed widely doing recitals throughout the South East. Evelyn started playing saxophone after leaving college and enjoys playing a very varied repertoire. She plays Tenor saxophone in The Lloyd Saxophone Quartet and until recently played clarinet and saxophone with “Retroactive”, “Music from the Sofa” and “Jukebox Manouche”.

Beatrice Sales was born in South Africa, lived in Zimbabwe and finally moved to England where she studied both viola and flute at the Royal College of Music. After a spell of freelance work in London she moved to Sussex, where her performance on both instruments is now concentrated on a wide range of chamber music and is complemented by some teaching.

Zhanna Kemp- Dashkovskaya was born in Saint Petersburg, Russia. She started to play the piano at the age of 7 and after finishing music school graduated from Saint Petersburg Mussorgsky Musical College with a Diploma of Music as a school teacher and accompanist. She studied with a student of Schmidt-Shklovskaya, a Soviet pianist and pedagogue, was widely known in the Soviet Union for her work with pianists with professional injuries. After 5 years of study in St Petersburg State Pedagogical University, Zhanna qualified as a Teacher of Music and Music Education Methodologist in 1995, after which she worked in different music and art schools in Russia.

She moved to the UK over 12 years ago and continues teaching piano in both English and Russian languages. She has performed in many Brighton venues as accompanist, participating in lots of events and festivals. She is official accompanist of “Women of Note” - a Brighton based choir.
